B2 Entertainment and Monsterus are proud to present their long awaited and highly anticipated debut album "Zealots in the land of Nod." Over the past 2 years, Monsterus have become one of Christian music's most talked about new artists. Known for their bold lyrical approach and riveting music, Monsterus not only brings great music for the hard music listener but also a challenging message to all who listen. Monsterus has also turned the ear and gained the support of some major influential industry experts, as well as garnered numerous endorsements from a growing list of such top music gear companies as GHS Strings, Vic Firth Drumsticks and May Mics. Musically Monsterus competes with the hardest bands in the secular industry. Lyrically they are like no other!

"The album... is a power trio who've come up with an ambitious, sometimes byzantine, sonic amalgamation that forges a number of classic rock influences, all of it slathered with a heavy dose of hard rock muscle."
Music Connection Magazine

"Monsterus has to be the most ambitious group we've come across in a long time."
Blaze Magazine

Monsterus attracts their fans in original compositions that are comparable between rock in the 60s and the 80s.
